WELCOME PARADE FOR PFC.
ERICKSEN TO BE HELD SUNDAYCommunity Center
To Offer World
Politics Course

The Community Center Foundation will once again offer a novel discussion course on international issues to all Palos area residents. This program, started in Chicago, has spread nationwide to over 60 cities in 20 states. In the Chicago area alone there will be 50 groups meeting this fall.

Entitled the World Politics Program, the course is scheduled for 10 consecutive Thursday nights, beginning Oct. 8. Two trained discussion leaders from the Palos Area will conduct it at the Community Center, 127th street and Southwest highway.

The program is designed both for those who feel a special concern for international developments and those who simply enjoy meeting and talking with their neighbors. Reading materials are provided each participant (three small books, boxed) consisting of selections from famous political writers on a number of basic international issues.

Among the issues are such questions as: What does democracy really mean? How does it differ from authoritarianism? What problems arise for a democracy when confronted with an expansive totalitarian power? Is war inherent in the very nature of man and his world? Among the authors dealing with these and similar questions are Plato, John Locke, Lincoln, Churchill, Mussolini and Walter Lippman.

"From what I have seen of the discussion groups," says Paul Sanders, director of the Community Center, "they combine the pleasures of a 'bull session' with the satisfactions of clarifying thinking and increasing understanding of the vital problems at hand. Hence they are educational in the broadest sense, as well as being an enjoyable experience, as all education ought to be."

Co-sponsors of the Chicago Area program are the University College of the University of Chicago and the Chicago Council of Foreign Relations. The program is sponsored nationally by the American Foundation for Political Education here in Chicago, with the help of a grant from the Ford Foundation's Fund for Adult Education.

For those Palos area people who have already taken the World Politics course, the Community Center is considering starting a group to discuss American Foreign Policy.

Anyone interested in either course is asked to write or phone the World Politics Program, 1 So. LaSalle St., State 2-9224, Chicago 3, Ill., or the Community Center, Palos Park, Ill., Tel. Palos Park 780.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, superintendent of the Mokena public school, and the Mokena school board were pleased to receive the following letter from Vernon L. Nickell, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Springfield, Ill.:

"Your school district was visited during the past year by members of my staff for the purpose of evaluating your total educational program and advising you about any of your school problems. Later, you received a written report of our visitation. On the basis of our evaluation, your attention to previous recommendations, your Annual Report, and the recommendation of your County Superintendent, I am glad to extend recognition to your district for the 1952-53 school year.

"Your Certificate of Recognition has been sent to your County Superintendent for his signature. You will, no doubt, receive it within a few days.

"It is important that you, your teachers, your Board, and your community continue their efforts to maintain adequate educational opportunities for the young people of your community. Such opportunities can be provided only through intelligent leadership and cooperation. Your community has entrusted its Board with the serious responsibility of educating and training its youth. It should not be satisfied until the best possible educational opportunities are made available. "I hope the suggestions which might have been made at the time of our visitation, or later in our letter of visitation, will be helpful to you in your efforts to improve these opportunities. We shall be glad to hear about any significant changes which are made to improve your program.

Village Players
To Produce 3-Act
Farce Oct. 23-24

The meeting of the Mokena Village Players on Tuesday night Sept. 8, started the third year of the players with a bang. The president, Ray Hoolehan, presided at the meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bills, Mokena.

The bang will not be heard during the play, which will be produced the nights of October 23 and 24 but that is about the only noise which will be missed during the three acts of the mystery farce, "Ramsack Inn." The play written by George Batson, keeps the audience full of tension and laughter. It was a Broadway success as well as a successful movie with Zazu Pitts in the leading role of Belinda Pryde. Mrs. R. Hoolehan will play Belinda and Mrs. Henry Clark will take the interesting part of Mame Phillips.

Mrs. George Bills is the director of the play and after a big meeting for the "tryouts" the cast was selected with rehearsals three times a week.

The new officers of the Players, Mr. Hoolehan, president; Miss Marguerite Bass, vice president; Mrs. James Quinn, secretary; Mrs. Edward Hentsch, treasurer are preparing to lead the enthusiastic group of Mokena people interested in amateur theatricals to a successful year.

REVIVE CURFEW
IN MIDLOTHIAN

The juvenile delinquency problem had become so acute in Midlothian the past few weeks that the police department decided to act before the situation got completely out of hand. In line with this, a curfew ordinance which provides that all youths 16 years or younger be off the streets by 10:30 pm. was revived. The ordinance also provides fines of $2 to $25 against parents of juveniles who are picked up more than once by police.

Many boys and girls have been picked up in the past few weeks who had been found drinking, or behaving indecently, and a number of burglaries had been perpetrated in the village, undoubtedly by youths.

Most of the delinquents came from homes where parents are working, or broken homes where proper parental supervision is lacking, it was said.

The Midlothian board of trustees voted to invite mayors of Harvey, Oak Forest, Crestwood, Posen and Markham to a special meeting which was to be held Wednesday to discuss the situation. President of the board Henry Milen said a number of youths taken into custody by police had admitted buying liquor in these villages.

A happy event occurred in Mokena this week when the civic project for the acquisition of a public park, which was started last March, was completed with the final payment on the property.

A drive to buy property on LaPorte road and Mokena st. for a public park for the citizens of Mokena was started in March by the Mokena Civic Association. The cost of the property, which had been purchased from Mrs. T. M. McNally, of Waterloo, Ia. was $8,000, and until recently $5,000 had been paid on it.

Early in March the Civic Association called for a special meeting, to which all organizations in town sent representatives, which included churches. The campaign got underway and everyone in town was solicited for contributions with which to make the initial payment of $2,000 on the property. The drive was extended into April to raise additional funds. Pledges were made and some gave cash outright for the furtherance of this worthy cause. A public park for Mokena has been deemed absolutely essential, with no time to lose.

Before Homecoming there was a balance of $3,000 due, plus interest. Homecoming was set up with the provision that 70% of the funds were to go to the Mokena park, and this week that 70%, which amounted to $2873.90, was handed over to the park fund committee, and with the money still remaining in the drive fund they were able to pay off the balance, and will have a few hundred dollars left over. This will be used as a start in doing the necessary work of grading, etc. to beautify the park and make it more useable.

During the past summer two groups have been playing baseball there, using two temporary backstops, and the Girl Scouts used it one week for their day camping project. Therefore with the last payment they have been paid and having received an up-to-date title to the land, Mokena is now in possession of a public park where all may enjoy themselves and feel secure against the steady encroachment of progress, which in its natural course, is stripping us of our last recreational areas.

A tentative date of September 29 has been set when delegates from all organizations will meet in the VFW hall for the purpose of organizing a park board to manage the park. Further notice will be given with regard to this meeting.

Above is an itemized financial report made by the Mokena Homecoming committee:

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane Women's Travel Authority

I've just begun gazing into my crystal windshield and have come up with some predictions about 1953 automobile travel. If you are planning a car trip any time next year—and who isn't?—my findings should interest you.

More families will travel more car-miles for fun in 1953 than ever before in history.

This is due to the record number of pleasure cars in use, continued prosperity, and a further increase in both number and length of paid vacations.

At the same time, the 1953 traveler will find more good accommodations and more facilities for his comfort and pleasure. At the recent convention of the National Association of Travel Organizations, hotel and motel proprietors, resort operators and other travel officials pledged more service, more help and more service for vacationers everywhere.

Some other predictions: Off-season vacations will increase sharply. More people will take part of their time-off in the winter, spring or fall to take advantage of cheaper rates.

More people will supplement longer vacations with week-end trips, year-round.

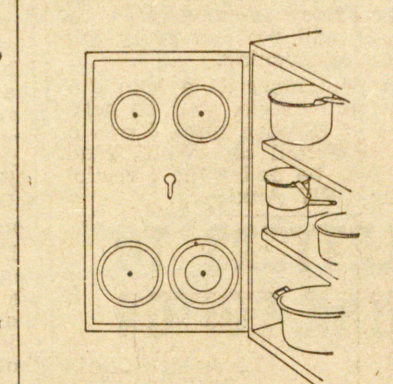

All in all, the next twelve months should be great ones for more and better vacation fun!

Lids on Cabinet Door

ROUND-KNOBBED lids of cooking utensils may be neatly stored inside a cabinet door where they will be both accessible and occupying otherwise waste space. Here are directions for making this handy storage unit:

Measure the door and obtain a piece of Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood which covers the interior excepting for one-half inch on all sides. If the door is paneled, there will be room between the cabinet door and the Presdwood for the knobs to fit into openings the shape of large keyholes. If the interior is one plane from one side to another, it will be necessary to install a strip of lumber about one inch thick as a perimeter.

Lay out the round-knobbed lids on the Presdwood so that their positions may be marked. With a bit and brace, bore holes about one-quarter inch larger than the knobs. Underneath each, with a keyhole saw, complete the oversized keyhole, forming a slot into which the neck of the knob will fit. The final step is to fasten the panel to the interior of the door with finishing nails. The panel may be unfinished or painted.

The Christian Line

Lesson for Sept. 20, 1953

EVERYBODY knows the phrase, "party line," meaning a kind of ideas, arguments, plans and policies which are approved by a central authority. We hear the phrase most often in Communist connections; but there are also such things as the Republican line, or the Democratic line, and many others. Is there such a thing as the Christian line? In particular, is there a Christian line of behavior, a Christian way of life which is distinct, an ideal for all Christians everywhere? Or is Christian living a more or less do-as-you-please affair?

Christianity Is Respectable

The letter to Titus in the New Testament comes right to this point. Titus was a fairly young missionary in a very tough area, the island of Crete. Titus may have wished he were in an easier field.

"Liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons"—that was the reputation of Cretans.

Even when such people become Christians there is a lot they have to learn. They do not become complete saints overnight. (Did you?) Paul, writing to his young former assistant Titus, advises him, as an advisor of new Christians, what line to take in teaching and preaching to these unpromising—Cretan converts.

Through Titus the Apostle speaks to parents, ministers, Sunday school teachers, of today. The first thing the modern reader notices is that the Christian line sounds "respectable," like advice from Polonius or Lord Chesterfield. Old men should be temperate, orthodox; old women ought not to gossip; young women should love their husbands and children; young men must exercise self-control; employees (slaves, in Titus' parish) must be honest and give satisfaction to their employers. Citizens must be law-abiding.

Everybody should have a decent job and save his money for special needs. Really, the reader may ask, what is so special about all this? Is the Christian line just to be a "decent citizen?" Well, of course that is a part of it. Christianity is certainly not DISrespectability!

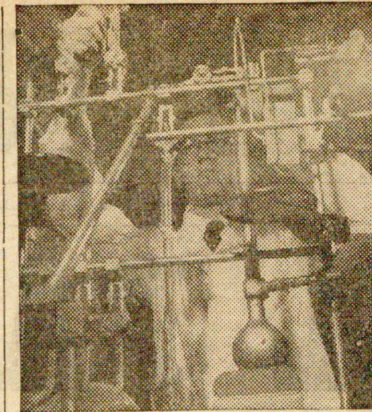

Propriety Without Pride

So the Christian line does not go off in some other direction than respectability; but it is by no means the same thing. There are two vital points in which the Christian's way of life is distinctly unique. One is the Christian's attitude to his own respectability conduct. He must never do good in order to show off, neither to man nor to God. He must never be good or do good simply in order to get good in return. He must never think of his own good deeds as a kind of coin by which he pays his way into heaven. Years before "Titus" was written, when Jesus was telling his disciples that they must live above the level of the Pharisees, this demand must have surprised and puzzled his listeners. How could anybody on earth be more respectable than a Pharisee? Well, nobody could. What Jesus was pleading for was (in part) just the difference in attitude toward one's own goodness. The Pharisee was proud of being good; he thought God owed him something. He wanted merit-badges; Jesus called for humility. The Christian's goodness is a response to God, not a demand on God. It is an expression of what we owe to God.

Mercy and Renewal

This brings us to the other point at which the Christian line is on a different plane from ordinary respectability. It is the effect of a new birth inside. There is great difference between lifting ourselves by our own efforts and being lifted by the Holy Spirit; between goodness home-made and heaven-made. Being respectable enough for a good name in society is some distance short of growing into the likeness of Christ. There is an immense gap between respectability like a topcoat, and the goodness which is in the blood, beating through a changed heart. There is a clear difference between the respectability of a man who looks no further ahead than his own obituary, and the deep-reaching spiritual renewal of the man who lives as an "heir in hope of eternal life."

Vets Urged to File Disability Claims

The Illinois Veterans' Commission urges veterans' who served on or after June 27, 1950, to file disability compensation claims if they believe they have been disabled by injury or disease incurred in or aggravated by active service.

Veterans are advised by Administrator Willard A. Manning, that although they may not be suffering from residuals of disability or disease at this time it is imperative that their claim be filed and made a matter of record in the event the disease or disability should manifest itself to a point of disablement that the individual could not follow gainful employment.

Regardless of the disability the veteran may be suffering, it is urged that he visit an area office of the Illinois Veterans' Commission in order to file his formal application for compensation.

Petition to Form Dixie Gardens Fire Protection Area

(CNS) A public hearing on a petition to establish the Dixie Gardens fire protection district in 650 acres of unincorporated land in Bloom township, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, October 1, in County Court. The hearing date was set September 4 by Judge Edmund K. Jarecki in County court after a petition signed by 57 residents of the area requesting the district was filed with the clerk of the County court.

Charles C. Donovan, attorney for the petitioners, estimated that 300 persons live in the proposed fire protection area which takes in most of the unincorporated communities of Dixie Gardens and Olympia Gardens. The extremities of the district are Vollmer road on the north, Western ave. on the west, Route 30 on the south, and Reigel rd. on the east.

The district is north and west of Chicago Heights, south of Homewood and Flossmoore, and north of Park Forest. Fire protection currently is provided by the Dixie Gardens Volunteer fire department. Donovan said the move to form the fire district was made in order to raise money by taxation for fire fighting equipment and other expenses.

The tax rate set by state law for fire protection districts is .125 percent per $100 assessed valuation. If the petition is found in order and approved by Judge Jarecki following the public hearing, a date will be set for a referendum on the proposal. If the proposal is passed by the majority of voters living in the area, the district will be formed.

How Prayer Heals To Be Subject of New Radio Series
A new series of weekly 15-minute radio programs illustrating the power of prayer in everyday life will be released September 19 by the Christian Science church, it is announced.

Each program presents a firsthand, documentary narrative in which a guest tells of his own religious experience—how his problem was solved or how he experienced physical healing through prayer in Christian Science.

The thoroughly verified accounts are being tape recorded from persons of many different walks of life from all over the United States, Canada, Europe, Africa, Australia and other parts of the world.

Following the narrative a short inspirational message will be presented on how the listener can solve his own problems through prayer.

The programs—carrying the series title "How Christian Science Heals"—are produced by the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., according to announcement by Thomas E. Hurley, Manager of Christian Science Committees on Publication.

They will be heard on about 600 radio stations throughout the United States, Canada and Australia, and at points in Latin America, Africa, Europe and New Zealand. WJJD, Chicago 1160 k.c. will carry the program at 7:40 Sunday mornings.

Fall Pasture Fertilization Pays In More Grazing, Extra Forage and Higher Profits

Well-fertilized pasture gives extra milk and meat per acre.

TOP-DRESSING pastures this fall with fertilizer will pay off in an earlier grazing bite next spring, lower feeding costs and a bigger return per acre in high quality forage for dairy cows and beef cattle, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Blue grass or white clover permanent pastures that are top-dressed with a high nitrogen fertilizer this fall will get off to a quicker start next spring," says a statement made public by the committee. "That means fewer days of barn feeding and more days of pasturing."

Legume-grass meadows fed with a high potash fertilizer will return extra tons of hay next year. Moreover, the life of the stand will be considerably lengthened. Midwestern agronomists recommend adding from 300 to 500 pounds per acre of a fertilizer such as 0-20-20, 0-10-20, or 0-10-30, depending on the need for potash.

The fertilizer can be added any time this fall, but for the fullest benefits it should be put on as soon as possible after the last cutting of hay.

The committee points out that fall is a good time to add fertilizer. It helps spread the farmer's work load. In the fall, too, the ground is harder and there is usually a firmer footing for tractors, trucks and spreading equipment.

"If you wait until spring," says the committee, "you may be stymied by wet weather."

Fertilizing pastures offers great profit possibilities, reports the committee.
"The narrowing margin between production costs and marketing returns for meat and milk," says the statement, "demands greater economy in feed. Fertilized pasture and hay are the cheapest feed a farmer can produce."

It Pays to Fertilize Fall Seeded Wheat

Above, pile-ups of waiting trucks at fertilizer factories and last-minute scarcities of supplies can be avoided if farmers order plant food early. Left, big wheat yields come from plenty of plant food.

IT will pay farmers to fertilize the wheat they seed this fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Well fed wheat will deliver more bushels per acre next year," says a statement made public by the committee.
"Higher yields will mean lower production costs and more net profit per acre."

Midwestern agronomists estimate that wheat yields per acre could be at least doubled in most states, says the committee, by better management practices, including the use of fertilizer.

"These agronomists point out that it is profitable to use anywhere from 300 to 500 pounds of fertilizer per acre on wheat," says the committee. "Top yields per acre are just not possible on most farms without the use of plant food." Farmers aiming at high wheat yields per acre were advised by the committee to contact their fertilizer dealers now to make arrangements for delivery when it is advisable.

"That's the surest way to get the exact grade and amount of plant food you want," says the committee. Waiting until the last minute is hazardous. Farmers who remember the scramble for scarce supplies in last spring's rush period will see the wisdom of ordering early for this fall's needs.

The committee points out that manufacturers report that it is not possible to produce and deliver all the fertilizer farmers can profitably use on wheat in a four-week period this fall. The movement of fertilizer will have to be stretched over a longer period, starting in August and September.

Lockport, R. 1
Telephone Lockport 1387M

The Little Women 4H club entertained in the home of Bonnie Mlynarik Friday night, September 9. Mrs. Mlynarik served delicious refreshments. The members are working on Christmas gifts, which will occupy their time at each meeting until their regular club projects begin. They will also practice good hosting at these meetings which will be in the form of parties. The next meeting will be held in the Barnett school October 9.

Hi-X met in the church Sunday evening with Rita Rodgers in charge.

Many people from here attended the Jensen Burcenski wedding in Lockport Saturday afternoon.

A pleasant fellowship dinner in charge of Mrs. C.G. Rowley and Mrs. H. Reed Burch was served at Homer church following the usual Sunday services September 13. Rev. Talbert gave a short talk on his hopes for the future of the new church.

The name of Mrs. Andrew Lahmann was unintentionally omitted from the list of Homer teachers last week. She is the Goodings Grove teacher, the former Honora Blum who has taught that school for several years.

Hadley school opened Monday morning after attending for registration only last Tuesday. This was to give the work men time to complete the new room which is now ready for occupancy except for details which can be finished with school in session. Much credit is due the contractors and men of the district who have put up a fine little building in such quick time. It includes a basement with central heating for the whole building as well as modern plumbing for the two rooms.

Miss Norma Loucks spent the week end with her sister, Miss Betty, in Minneapolis. Norma left by plane Friday afternoon returning Monday.

Several Homer boys accompanied Lewis Barr to Starved Rock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Weis of Crown Point, Ind. were visitors of Harry Burch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hastert Clearwater, Fla., were Tuesday evening visitors in the Wilbur Francis home. Mrs. Hastert is the former Edith Gillett, a Homer resident when a young lady.

"Grangpa" Werner who makes his home with his daughter Mrs. Wieting on the Maple farm, celebrated his 95th birthday with an informal family gathering recently.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Finley and Bobbie moved to their new home in Lockport last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Talbert and son will take a short vacation trip this week and then move from Milwaukee to Chicago where he will attend the seminary at Chicago university.

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Longman and son of Joliet were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Ray Carlson home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rowley were Sunday night supper guests of their son, Elmer, and family in Lockport.

The Missionary society will meet in the Fred Kopelman home in Lockport Thursday, September 24, with Mrs. Kopelman and Mrs. Henry Rodgers as hostesses. Final plans will be made for the dinner which is to be served to the men of the United church of LaGrange September 26.

OTT FAMILY REUNION

68 people attended the Ott reunion at Moose hall in Lockport Sunday September 13. Dinner and supper were served, games and visiting enjoyed and travel pictures were shown by Elmer Ott.

The committee for 1954 are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gudac, chairmen. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lindstrom. Mrs. Elmer Ott will serve as treasurer.

The Ott family are descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ott, both natives of Homer township, where they resided most of their lives.

Several of the group took time out during the afternoon to attend the horse show at the Bovee farm near Manhattan.

SCIENCE VS. BRAIN FEVER by Science Features

Meningitis gets its name from the fact that the disease is characterized by an inflammation of the covering, or meninges, of the brain and spinal cord. It often strikes in epidemics, is extremely contagious, and its most frequent victims are children and young adults.

This disease, sometimes known as brain fever, was fatal in almost every case until 1906, when an anti-meningitis serum was developed which cut the existing mortality rate in half. Even as late as 1928, however, fatalities due to the meningitis epidemic of that year reached 50 per cent.

With the introduction of the sulfa drugs, and later the antibiotics, a drastic reduction in the meningitis mortality rate occurred. Recently, for example, two Seattle doctors reported that only one out of 30 cases of meningitis in children proved fatal. Treatment in these cases consisted of a combination of sulfadiazine and terramycin.

But despite advances in treatment, meningitis is still a dangerous disease. One of the biggest dangers is that though the patient may live the inflammation may have time to permanently damage the brain or nervous system. To prevent this, doctors regard it as essential that the disease be recognized and treated at an early stage.

Since meningitis may be caused by several different microbes, a tap of the spinal fluid must be taken to isolate and identify the specific disease-causing organism. So important is a quick diagnosis that this is often accomplished within a half hour after arrival at the hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone who sent cards and who visited me while I was in the hospital; also many thanks to our many neighbors who were so kind to assist at the farm during my absence.

ARTHUR SIEVERT

There will be a special meeting of all members of the William Martin VFW Auxiliary in their hall Monday night, at 7:30 to complete plans for the ham dinner which the post will give Sunday, Sept. 27. All members are urged to attend as all help is urgently needed.

Miss Maxine Kalin of La Grange spent the weekend with Mrs. Jessie Sipple.

The evening circle of the WSCS of the Methodist church met in the home of Mrs. Harley Mann last Thursday evening. The next meeting will be Oct. 9 in the home of Mrs. D. Fant.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Homering have heard from their son Harold who is in Korea, that he has been serving on the prison exchange work, taking North Korean prisoners to Freedom Bridge.

Durward Fant left Sunday by plane for Seattle, Wash., on a two weeks business trip for his company, the International Packers Limited, which deals with import and export of meats. He will also go to Portland, Oregon and to various large cities in Calif.

William Bradley, who has been absent from his work for the past month because of ill health, entered Silver Cross hospital Monday for observation.

The Bible Study class of the Methodist church will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitman Sunday evening. The lesson study will start at 1 o'clock and will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. Hugh Morris.

Presidents Council To Open Season For Ill. Garden Club

The season will open for The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc. with its annual Presidents' Council, a luncheon meeting, at twelve-thirty o'clock Monday, September 21, in the Red Lagoon Room of the Palmer House. A pleasant occasion affording leaders of garden groups an opportunity to exchange news and ideas, the Council draws presidents from 207 affiliated clubs throughout the state, and each president has the privilege of bringing one other member of her club. With the state board of directors and special committee chairmen in attendance as well, more than 450 women are expected at the luncheon.

Beautiful Starved Rock Lodge Starved Rock, Ill., will be the site of the semi-annual meeting of The Garden Club of Illinois, on Monday, October 26th.

Mrs. H. J. Blumh, of LaGrange, general chairman of the Chicago Flower Show "Christmas of Song and Story", which will be held November 28th through December 1st, 1953 in The Palmer House Exhibition Hall, will tell of the club's plans for this spectacular show.

Announcement will be made of a two day pilgrimage to the Abraham Lincoln Memorial Garden, at Springfield, Ill., the project of the Garden Club of Illinois, the first week in May 1954.

The afternoon program at the luncheon will be a lecture on "The Art of Design in Flower Arrangement" by Mrs. Tommy Bright, of Chicago. Mrs. Bright, who was the Director of Bright's School of Floral Design, has achieved international fame while directing the oldest and best known school for training professional florists. She is well known as a guest demonstrator and commentator at design schools and has the distinction of being one of the most widely known authorities in the floral field. Mrs. Bright is now devoting her time to lecturing and writing and states she has covered all parts of the United States in the last several years. She has also managed to do all floral design work for the new florists publication called "Living With Flowers."

that collected in the same three-quarters of 1952.

The cooperation of the court county and municipal and justice of the peace has been excellent and the state's attorney's program is just getting into its stride," Gutknecht said.

He said his aim is to help iron out inequalities "and on by constant cooperation between assessors, judges, and the state attorney's office can be done." He said the difficulties of the assessment and collection of taxes in a county this size are enormous.

"Inequalities are bound to creep in, and only above board frank discussions and cooperation between officials and the public can improve the problem, Gutknecht said.

"Our motto will be equal treatment for all, and all carrying their fair share."

He added: "The drive will continue."

EXPLAINS PERSONAL TAX SITUATION

Because of the number of letters being received by John Gutknecht, states attorney, from people in suburban areas, claiming they are willing to pay a fair personal property tax but that their neighbors are not even assessed, Mr. Gutknecht has sent a tax letter to all justices of the peace, township assessors and newspapers in Cook County explaining the situation. A copy of this letter, which is dated Sept. 14, 1953, is here reproduced:

To the Citizens of Cook County:

"In our efforts in line with our oath of duty to collect the Personal Property tax with the help of the Judges of the city and county courts and the Magistrates and Justices of the Peace, we have been receiving a number of letters from citizens who state that they are willing to pay a fair and reasonable Personal Property tax

Good Soil Tilth Helps Corn Plants Build Strong Roots for Higher Yields Per Acre

GOOD soil tilth makes a big difference in the yields of corn you get. The better the tilth the more bushels you will get. That is illustrated by the two hills of corn shown in the above picture.

The two hills of corn were taken from nearby plots in the same field. In both cases enough well-balanced fertilizer was added so that the corn could and should have made top yields if other growing conditions were favorable.

The corn plants with the big root systems with five big ears were grown on a plot that had received good management that had maintained soil structure. The soil was loose, well-conditioned and well drained. Its organic matter content was steadily replenished.

Good tilth gave the big plants chance to develop strong deep-reaching root systems. Thus they were able to get all the nutrients and moisture from the soil needed for high-yielding growth.

In the case of the corn plants with the small root systems and three small ears, the soil was compacted and tight due to poor management previously that had mined out the organic matter and broken down the structure. The root systems could not deeply penetrate the closely packed soil. Thus they could not forage for the nutrients that were in the soil. This cut down the plants' growth and reduced the number and size of roots.

"If you expect to get the most efficient use out of the fertilizer you use," says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, "then you must maintain the structure of the soil so that roots can grow and the root system develop to make full use of the soil's nutrient supply."

but who are complaining because their neighbors living in as good or better circumstances, are getting no tax bill and of course those who have written us and we are herewith advising the public, that if they are being discriminated against and are receiving a tax bill where others in the same neighborhood are receiving none, they may write a letter to the Justice of the Peace, the township Assessor or to the State's Attorney's office, stating the facts. If equal treatment is given all, there will be no unfair burden on anyone by virtue of the Personal Property tax.

"So long as the Personal Property tax is in the statutes, it is the duty of the Assessor, the State's Attorney, the Treasurer and the Judges to enforce that law and since the law must be enforced, it is the aim of the State's Attorney and I am certain, of all the other public officials involved, that said tax be as equitable as possible. It is a cumulative tax to assess and to collect and unless the public cooperates, both in paying the tax and showing up inequalities, there is bound to be naos in its enforcement."

"The State's Attorney will furnish all his facilities, not only for the collection of the tax, but to help in making sure that the tax is fair and equitable."

John Gutknecht, State's Attorney

Off to School Again

Vacation days are ended, and the school year starts anew. There'll be so many changes for the moms and kiddies, too. Some eager little youngsters will find school a brand-new place.

With lots of little classmates to spell with and to race. The kids who've been to school before should get right back in line.

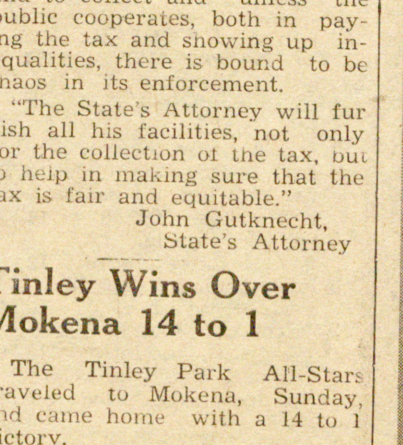

Who knows, before September's gone they might say, "School is fine."

In the upper grades the teachers will get more cooperation. For some of those boys and girls are heading for graduation. And in the high schools of our land the students will do all they can.

For they know these are the formative years for the future maid or man.

So let's get behind the scholars, the new and old ones, too. Let's wish them a good school year ahead, may the goal they set come true!

It was in 1857 that Jean Francois Millet painted his famous masterpiece, "The Gleaners." Farm machinery was just getting under way in America. Flails for beating out grain have been little used since that time. As reapers improved, wheat fields expanded. Then came the combines that performed the whole operation of cutting and threshing at one time. Today the mechanized farm is producing food as never before. QUESTION:

what is the simplest farm diesel I can buy?

ANSWER:

THE OLIVER... It is the Simplest Farm Diesel Made. With an Oliver, you need no starting engine, no starting fuel. You have no spark plugs to adjust or replace... no coil, no magnet, no distributor, no carburetor.

But simplicity is just one of the reasons why this is the most up-to-date tractor you can buy. Among others:

LOW FUEL COST. You can run on Oliver Diesel 3 to 4 days for the cost of running one day with a spark ignition tractor.

LOW UPKEEP. An Oliver Diesel costs less to maintain than any gasoline tractor. Withstands a longer lay-up, too.

ANY SIZE YOU WANT. 2-plow "66", 2-3 plow "77", 3-4 plow "88", 4-5 plow "99"—all diesels.

Cream Whips Main Street Traffic

Big traffic jam in front of the office last week. Thought everybody in the county was coming in to buy The Clarion, but they weren't.

Seems a 5-gallon can fell off Whitey Fisher's truck, spilling cream all over the street. Our cop on duty, Tiny Fields, halted traffic so Whitey could pick up the can. Tiny was about to wave the cars on when a kitten ran out and started lapping up the cream.

Well, traffic piled up, but Tiny paid no heed. Light changed green three times. After the kitten had enough, Tiny waved the traffic through.

From where I sit, this was just a "Tiny" demonstration of the way people in our town are. They're usually pretty considerate and tolerant. If one of our neighbors prefers a good glass of beer to his friend's coffee at dinnertime, it's just each to his own taste and everything's "smooth as cream" between them.

Come in and see . . . value check . . . and test drive a Ford today!

No doubt about it...

Ford's the one fine car in the low-price field!

Feature after feature . . . part after part . . .
Ford is as fine as the finest . . .
yet it's priced with the lowest.

No car ever built has won such enthusiastic and growing preference as the '53 Ford . . . and no wonder. For no other car with such a wealth of fine-car features costs so little as Ford.

Yes, Ford, with all its fine-car quality, is offered at a price that's easy to pay.

You can have a Ford with a V-8 engine—the same type of engine that powers America's most expensive cars—for hundreds less than many Six-cylinder cars. And a Ford powered with the high-compression Mileage Maker Six costs even less.

Then, too, Ford's body is built like the best, with steel body panels of the same quality and thickness as in the most expensive cars.

Ford also proves that a car doesn't need to carry gas-thirsty extra weight to "gentle" you over the bumpiest roads! For Ford's smooth, level ride blots out the bumps . . . cuts front end road shock alone up to 80%!

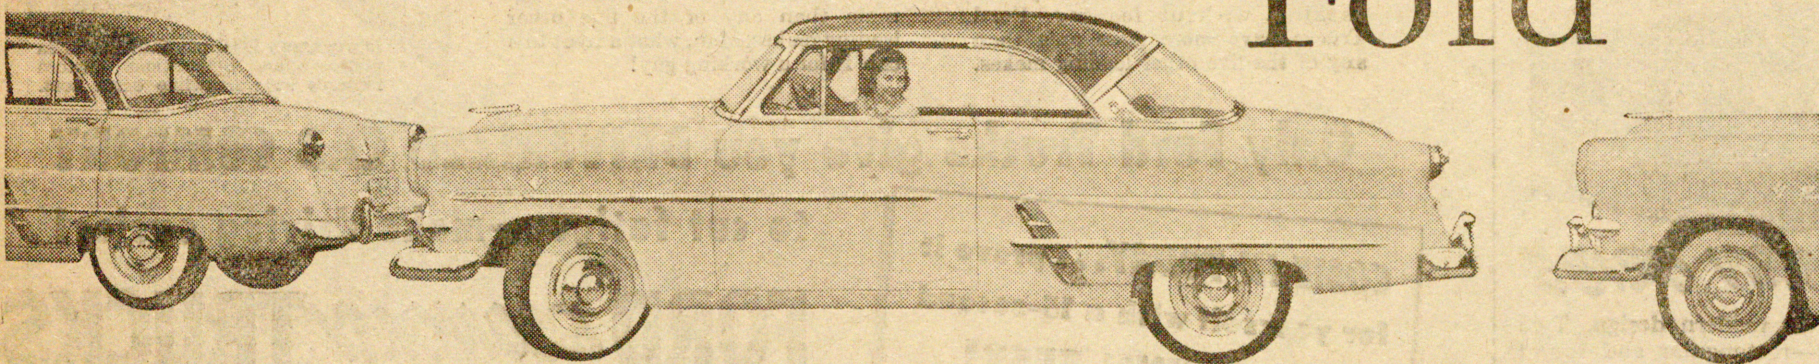

Also, you can have your Ford V-8 with Master-Guide, the last word in power steering. Master-Guide cuts up to 75% of turning effort yet it leaves you with the natural "feel" of steering on the straightaway.

There are many other fine-car features, too! Ford Full-Circle Visibility . . . foam-rubber cushioned seats front and rear on all models . . . finishes that are baked on over a complete rust-proofing treatment . . . to mention a few.

It takes all these features to make a fine car truly fine . . . worth more when you buy it . . . and in resale, too! A survey of used cars lots proves that people are willing to pay a larger percentage of the original cost for year-old Fords than for any other used cars. No doubt about it, Ford's your best buy!

A NEW CHAIN-TYPE ROW-CROP ATTACHMENT

for the  Forage Harvester

Farmers who prefer a row-crop attachment with chain-type gatherers, can now have it for the Gehl Forage Harvester, and it is different than most chain-type gatherers. Here are some of its advantages:

- Has no bevel gears for Cross-Chain Drive. . . uses roller chain, enclosed up and out of the dust and dirt. • Heavy 62 detachable steel chain is used . . . less chance for breakdowns. • Has the same time-proved driving mechanism and clutch used so successfully for years on Gehl Row-Crop Attachments. • Sturdy, compact and delivers faster, cleaner cutting. • Easily mounted on Gehl power take-off or motor-driven forage harvester. • Special "down-corn" attachment is available.

Compare this new Gehl Row-Crop Attachment with other chain-type gatherers. Come in and see its many advantages.

Remember, more Gehl Forage Harvesters have been sold than those of any other independent manufacturer . . . famous for that highly-important, fast, uniform chopping that makes better feed, silage that packs better and keeps well.

WANT ADS GET RESULTSTo Celebrate 50th Anniversary of 1st Steam TurbineA famous milestone in the electric generating industry will be recalled next month when the fiftieth anniversary of Commonwealth Edison Company's historic Fisk Station in Chicago is celebrated.Willis Gale, chairman of Commonwealth, has announced plans for observing the anniversary of the opening of the plant where, in 1903, the first large steam turbine in America began operating.
The observance will be featured by a luncheon at the Conrad Hilton hotel, Chicago, on October 1 to which business and civic leaders of the Chicago and northwestern Illinois area are being invited.Ralph J. Cordiner, president of General Electric Company, which built the pioneer Fisk turbine, will be the guest speaker. That original turbine is now enshrined at General Electric's Schenectady, N. Y. plant, bearing the inscription "Monument to Courage.""The event really will be marking fifty years of progress in power station design and development," said Mr. Gale."The early Fisk unit, rated at 5,000 kilowatts (approximately 6,700 horsepower) was a daring innovation for its day. When it was ordered there was no guarantee it would be commercially successful but there was a steady belief it would prove to be the foundation on which the industry of the future would be built.""The conventional steam engine had reached the peak of its development for power production at the start of the century.
The need for increasing the capacity of the machine ran into the obstacle of great weight and ponderousness.""But even though the steam engine had reached its limit, there was no letup in the demand for electricity and it was this persistent growth that impelled the power companies to push the development of the steam turbine. The mighty turbines that produce power for Americans today are the justification of that early faith."The first Fisk turbine had a speed ten times as great as the reciprocating engine. It weighed but one-tenth as much, yet cost only three times as much per pound of metal. It was no more economical in the use of coal but the lower initial cost and the need for less operating personnel made it a far more practical machine. More important was its promise that future advances would come with experience.The original turbine was the first of four of the same size at Fisk. But so rapid was the progress in steam turbine development that in less than six years not one of the original turbines remained in operation. They had been dismantled and replaced by machines of greater efficiency and capacity.The Fisk Station is at 1111 W.
Cermak Road on the Chicago Sanitary and Ship Canal. The station name was taken from its location at the corner of Fisk and Twenty-second (now Cermak) streets. Because of its proximity to the central business area and an expanding industrial district the location proved to be of great importance.Lutheran Hour to Depict Everlasting Gospel in Pageant"The Everlasting Gospel" will be depicted in colorful pageantry as the highlight of the Lutheran Hour rally to be held Sunday afternoon, September 27, in the Chicago Stadium.Members of the pageant cast of 250, appropriately costumed, will appear in groups, as living portrayals illustrating the international coverage of The Lutheran Hour, the world's most extensive religious broadcast.Beginning with the initial broadcast 21 years ago, tableau scenes will appear in rapid succession on alternate halves of a 54 foot stage. Two huge 60-foot radio towers, which will zigzag the radio message via neon light ing, will signify today's mission ary miracle whereby these weekly messages are heard over 1257 stations in 58 countries and territories.While each scene is narrated, a continuous classical musica background will create the proper awe-inspiring mood. An extravagant musical fanfare will utilize a 16 piece brass ensembleand also the mighty stadium pipe organ.The finale will offer a gigantic tableau involving all members of the cast in a climax in which the mixed choirs of 3,000 adult and children's voices will be augmented by congregational singing by the audience of 25,000.As part of the presentation the Rev. Dr. Lawrence Acker of Omaha will deliver a 15 minute address. His topic will be the Macedonian cry, "Come Over and Help Us," emphasizing the need of The Lutheran Hour in Far Eastern countries.This rally is sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's league of Northern Illinois and is supported by 258 Lutheran churches in Chicago and the Northern third of the state. Members of the pageant cast and choirs are drawn from these sponsoring congregations. The public is invited. There will be 20,000 free seats.TORNADO YEAR 1953 A BADA tornado is the smallest but most vicious and, for its size, the most destructive of all storms. Tropical cyclones, called hurricanes in the Atlantic region and typhoons in the western Pacific, are mild in comparison. A hurricane may be from 50 to 1000 miles across, travel thousands of miles during its life—which may be as much as three weeks—and cause enormous damage, but the fierce winds spiraling toward its center, or "eye," rarely exceed 150 miles per hour. No instrument has been able to measure the violently spinning winds near the center of a tornado cloud but they may reach velocities estimated to be in excess of 550 m. p.h. It shrieks, howls and roars as its "foot" races across country, sometimes in hopskotch fashion, like an unpredictable evil demon.A tornado is a whirling mass of air that is started—not at the ground level as in the case of a "dust devil"—but by powerful cross currents in the storm cloud level some thousands of feet above. Such turbulent uplifts occur most frequently in the spring months when cold masses of air from the north encounter warm masses from the south on sunny days when the air aloft is markedly colder than the earth warmed air. The funnel shaped cloud so formed may extend only slightly below the greenish black "mother cloud" and never touch the earth but, too often, the rotating air acts on the air below it and sets up a spinning column that extends down, down, down until it reaches the ground. It is formed by such uprising currents and usually accompanies a tornado.

Sometimes the tapering column appears to dangle like an elephant's trunk; sometimes it hangs in a loose arch, like a great thick rope. Those whirling winds gyrate so violently—always counterclockwise in the northern hemisphere—that they greatly reduce the air pressure in the center. This abrupt reduction causes the air to expand and cool, forming the visible cloud. It is this vacuum-like center which sucks up roofs, causes the walls of buildings to burst outward and creates a boiling cloud of dust and debris.

Objects as heavy as an anvil, an automobile or even a locomotive, may be carried away.Since 1916, when the U. S.
Weather Bureau began to systematically investigate them, there have been 5204 tornadoes.
The number has varied from 65, in 1919, to 262 in 1949—an average of 149 per year. They have been reported during every month but are rare in fall and winter. May is the peak month, especially in the Great Plains and middlewestern states. Most tornadoes of early spring occur in the Gulf coastal states, and in autumn the Atlantic coastal states are hardest hit. Except in the south, where the majority occur between midnight and noon, most tornadoes strike between 3 and 7 p.m.During the past ten years, the average width of a tornado's destructive path has been 1200 feet, varying from 9 feet to 8 miles. It may touch the ground only briefly in a short narrow path, or it may persist for several hours and its path of destruction be very wide and 200 or 300 miles long. They usually move overland at a speed of about 40 miles per hour but sometimes one may stand stationary for several minutes, meanwhile whirling at tremendous speed, and then go on, or turn off in a new direction, or even make a wide looping swing. It may come from any direction but about seven-eighths of them come from the west—usually the southwest. The terrible Tri-stateTornado of March 18, 1925, traveled at 63 mph for 219 miles across Missouri, southern Illinois and Indiana, killing 606 people and injuring 2000 others, in Illinois alone.1953 has been a bad tornado year.GM TelecastersLindsey Nelson and Mel Allen,

To Erect 2 Bridges Over Creeks in Bloom Township

(CNS) County Commissioners Wednesday approved the awarding of two contracts amounting to $201,879.07 to two companies for the erection of two bridges over creeks in Bloom Township.

A contract for $119,409.40 was awarded to the Orr Construction Co. to build a bridge on Steger road over Plum Creek, 1,500 feet east of Burnham ave. The other contract for $82,469.67 was awarded to the Superior Concrete Construction Co. to build a bridge on State st. over Deer Creek, 500 feet south of Glenwood-Lansing rd. William J. Matamor county superintendent of highways, said both bids were below the estimates made by his department engineers.

Two recommendations from the County Zoning Board of Appeals for rezoning certain property were upheld by the public service committee of the County Board. One petition was from Santo Villani, 6106 S. Green st., to rezone property on the north east corner of 103rd st. and 88th ave., Palos Township, from farming to B-1 business. Villani plans to build three stores on the site, one a hardware.

The other petition was from Isaac Rietvald, Route 1, Chicago Heights, to rezone 35 acres of land on the south side of the Elgin Joliet and Eastern Railroad right of way and the west side of Woodlawn ave., Bloom Township, from farming to heavy industry. A company which will manufacture building materials is planned for the location with some processing of stone, gravel and clay.

A plat of Bateman's subdivision, located at the northwest corner of west 94th st. and south Meade ave., Worth township also was approved by the public service committee.

when you have Automatic Laundry Appliances!

You won't be schedule-bound... when you have modern automatic laundry appliances! "Doing" a laundry is so easy, takes so little time, you can polish it off any hour of any day. You'll add two new days to your week... days you used to spend washing, hanging heavy wet clothes, standing for hours over an ironing board.

Your automatic washer will wash, rinse and spin the clothes while you're busy elsewhere. When washing time is up, you'll simply toss the clothes into the dryer... where they'll tumble and fluff-dry in minutes. Later, whenever you feel like it, you can sit down at your modern rotary ironer and in no time at all the entire laundry's finished!

You won't dread Monday... you won't worry about the weather... and you won't have "ironing backaches"—when you have automatic laundry appliances.
